EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 719

COMPENSATION ADJUSTMENTS FOR GOVERNMENT PERSONNEL

WHEREAS, an efficient and effective civil service is crucial to the continuous development of our country;

WHEREAS, the current compensation of government personnel at the administrative/sub-professional and entry professional/technical levels are nearly comparable with those in the private sector, but the gap widens at the higher professional and executive/top management levels, making the latter very uncompetitive;

WHEREAS, the two recent compensation adjustments for government personnel effective July 1, 2006 and July 1, 2007, which accorded priority to those at the sub-professional and lower professional levels in view of limited government funds, have partly uplifted their economic well-being;

WHEREAS, the salaries and base pay of civilian and military/uniformed personnel, respectively, must be raised to address the gap in compensation between the private and public sectors for the government to attract and retain competent public servants;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GLORIA MACAPAGAL-ARROYO, President of the Republic of the Philippines, by virtue of the powers vested in me by Presidential Decree (P.D.) No. 985, P.D.
